

www.livingchoice.com.au

Red-letter day for Living Choice Glenhaven

Champagne, canapés and the excitement of welcoming TV star and Gold Logie winner, John Wood capped off a great evening at Living Choice Glenhaven on Friday 29 January.

More than 170 Living Choice Glenhaven residents, clients, staff and VIPs gathered in the luxury leisure centre to celebrate the village's new status as a Fully Accredited Village under the Australian Retirement Village Accreditation Scheme.

The highly prized Accreditation Certificate, awarded by the Retirement Village Association (RVA) of Australia, is only granted to retirement villages that have undergone a rigorous assessment process to ensure quality, professionalism and a high standard of physical amenities.

RVA Standards Manager Gary Metcalf, says the scheme sets the benchmark for professional excellence and ensures that people can select a retirement village with confidence.

Guests at the celebration included Member of Parliament Ray Williams and Mark Eagleston, Regional Manager NSW, ACT and WA of the Retirement Village Association.

Living Choice Operations Manager Christine Osgood paid tribute to the residents and staff for their contribution throughout the Accreditation process and thanked them for being such wonderful ambassadors for the village.

If you would like to join the happy family at Living Choice Glenhaven, give Gail or Jane a call at 1800 797 333 and arrange your own personal tour. But hurry because villas are selling fast!

(captions for photos)

Jane Fisher (Sales Consultant), Harry Kensell (Chairman Residents' Committee), Mark Eagleston (RVA), John Wood, Gail Eyres (Village Manager) and Christine Osgood (Operations Manager).

It was a special day for Carmel and Graham Ascough who moved into the village on the same day as the Accreditation Celebration.

(For more information contact Linda Hooper at lhooper@livingchoice.com.au or phone 0409 622 208.)